

Romans 1:16-17 - “For I am not ashamed of the gospel, for it is the power of God for salvation to everyone who believes, to the Jew first and also to the Greek. For in it the righteousness of God is revealed from faith for faith, as it is written, ‘The righteous shall live by faith.’”

To go alongside our series on Romans 6-8, this reading plan is designed to give you an overview of the whole book of Romans. Although we are only preaching on 3 chapters of the book we believe the context of what is said in the entire book is important. You can use this devotionally as an individual, together around the table as a family, in a 242 Group or small group Bible Study.

God’s word is living and active (Heb. 4:12) and able to reveal thoughts, motives and intents of the heart - which is the seat of real change. The prayer is that your heart is spurred on to worship, your faith rooted and built up in Christ, and your relationships with others strengthened as you go about the intake of this great book of the Bible.

Consider asking these questions as you read the text:

1. Who was this originally written to and what was the situation when written?
2. What does this communicate about God’s character and nature?
3. How does this exalt or point the Jesus?
4. How is the Holy Spirit applying this to my life?
5. How should I respond to what I am reading and what the Holy Spirit is highlighting to me?
6. Who can I share this with?
7. How does all this enhance my love for God?
